

Never ending ode for the sake of art

Klaudija Ylaite

For the sake of art I did nothing today,
For the sake of art I forgot to eat breakfast in the morning,
For the sake of art I forgot how to love,
For the sake of art I was restless,
For the sake of art my feet got wet,
For the sake of art my tits got smaller,
For the sake of art my clothes got ripped,
For the sake of art I forgot to pray,
For the sake of art I stopped painting,
For the sake of art my make up changed,
For the sake of art I started reading,
For the sake of art I went traveling,
For the sake of art I moved countries,
For the sake of art I won't have children,
For the sake of art I will be homeless,
For the sake of art I am happy,
For the sake of art I am living,
For the sake of art I have a sketchbook,
For the sake of art I write poems,
For the sake of art I act silly,
For the sake of art I am myself,
For the sake of art I experience pain,
For the sake of art I experiment,
For the sake of art I don't talk with my mother,
For the sake of art I am alone,
For the sake of art I feel free,
For the sake of art I drink booze,
For the sake of art I hate art,
For the sake of art I fucked a random man,
For the sake of art I fall in love
For the sake of art I collect dolls,
For the sake of art I say my thoughts,
For the sake of art I create art,
For the sake of art I am a witch,
For the sake of art I left my life behind,
For the sake of art I masturbated today,
For the sake of art I grow vegetables,
For the sake of art I wait for each spring to come,
For the sake of art I create alter egos of myself,
For the sake of art I go crazy,

For the sake of art I can forgive,
For the sake of art I say fuck it!
For the sake of art I don't care anymore,
For the sake of art I make mistakes,
For the sake of art I have friends,
For the sake of art I drink coffee,
For the sake of art I cry a lot,
For the sake of art I cannot kill myself,
For the sake of art I went dumpster diving,
For the sake of art I force myself to read,
For the sake of art I challenge reality,
For the sake of art I ask for more,
For the sake of art I started to forget my native language,
For the sake of art I think,
For the sake of art I am learning Dutch,
For the sake of art I organise events,
For the sake of art I act sane,
For the sake of art I submerge to the unknown,
For the sake of art I have my home,
For the sake of art I would do anything,
For the sake of art I will disappear one day,
For the sake of art I will marry the one I will never love,
For the sake of art I will earn money,
For the sake of art I will cry one day,
For the sake of art I have no other optimums,
For the sake of art I believe in Plato,
For the sake of art I hate criticism,
For the sake of art I brush my teeth,
For the sake of art I socialise,
For the sake of art I do bartending job,
For the sake of art I occasionally get laid,
For the sake of art I am creating new art forms,
For the sake of art I am failing in life,
For the sake of art I sometimes forget to enjoy simple life gifts,
For the sake of art I cannot concentrate,
For the sake of art I talk nonsense,
For the sake of art I am writing this poem,
For the sake of art I want to be recognised,
For the sake of art I aim for a change,
For the sake of art I agree with Fluxus philosophy,
For the sake of art I feel frustrated,
For the sake of art I will go to Hawaii,
For the sake of art I have the newest MacBook,

For the sake of art I pretend I know what art is,
For the sake of art I act as an artist,
For the sake of art I have no hobbies,
For the sake of art I follow a strict routine,
For the sake of art I lie occasionally,
For the sake of art I buy new clothes,
For the sake of art I support consumerism,
For the sake of art I am vegetarian,
For the sake of art I take drugs,
For the sake of art I applied to an art school,
For the sake of art I pretend I am all good,
For the sake of art I am pretentious,
For the sake of art I try to live as an artist,
For the sake of art I get confused,
For the sake of art I tend to forget my family,
For the sake of art I don't answer messages,
For the sake of art I have no free time,
For the sake of art I think about art,
For the sake of art I want to erase a word art,
For the sake of art I stopped talking with the people who don't appreciate me,
For the sake of art I love myself,
For the sake of art I support absurdity,
For the sake of art I am christian,
For the sake of art I will present this poem as an art piece,
For the sake of art I find it hard to keep on writing this poem,
For the sake of art I should finish soon,
For the sake of art I feel it should never be finished,
For the sake of art I have to find a meaning,
For the sake of art I have to find a form,
For the sake of art I will be insecure about this work,
For the sake of art I don't really care,
For the sake of art I pretend I don't care,
For the sake of art I have mastered how to act professionally,
For the sake of art I have no idea what is professionalism,
For the sake of art I hate professionalism,
For the sake of art I cannot comprehend some word meanings,
For the sake of art I refuse to follow the rules,
For the sake of art I embrace rebels,
For the sake of art I agree with Albert Camus,
For the sake of art I like putting profound philosophers names,
For the sake of art I enjoy reading text I cannot understand,
For the sake of art I attempt to find meanings,

For the sake of art I have been writing this poem for two weeks now,
For the sake of art I stay awake at nights,
For the sake of art I believe in fake presumptions,
For the sake of art I follow pop culture,
For the sake of art I strive to fit into the norms,
For the sake of art I will probably never fit anywhere,
For the sake of art I carry lots of disappointment towards humanity,
For the sake of art I call myself a humanist,
For the sake of art I pee approximately 6 times a day,
For the sake of art I constantly ask for attention,
